

The Scars of Jesus:
The Scars of His Hands and Feet
Week Two

“He himself bore our sins” in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; “by his wounds you have been healed.” For “you were like sheep going astray,” but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.” (1 Peter 2:24-25)

The Scars of His Hands and Feet heal us.

“He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross...” (1 Peter 2:24a)

*“Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me.”
(Psalm 23:4a)*

The Scars of His Hands and Feet free us.

“...so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness;” (1 Peter 2:24b)

The Scars of His Hands and Feet redeem us.

“... by his wounds you have been healed.” For “you were like sheep going astray,” but now you have returned...” (1 Peter 2:24c-25a)

The Scars of His Hands and Feet restore us.

“...but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.” (1 Peter 2:25b)

Small Group Discussion Questions:

1. What human limitations have you faced in your life? Share a story of God healing your scars.
2. How can God use your human weaknesses for His glory? Share an example.
3. Practically speaking, how can your hands and feet be the Hands and Feet of Jesus to someone this week?
